The webinar is a Zoom format, live, and interactive. Northwestern Health Sciences is providing the Continuing Education, as well as facilitating the Zoom format. When you are registered, you will receive an email from Continuinged@NWHealth.edu the day after you register and also on the week of the webinar. The email has the Log In connection, Zoom information, attendance information and the handouts. During the webinar, you will see the presenter live online, be able to download the handouts, and ask questions.

Registration is available to you by Northwestern Health Sciences University. Please see the flier below for full details on how to register.

Some Helpful Tips about Webinars:

This seminar will be delivered virtually via Zoom. We recommend you have a solid understanding of computer navigation and an active email account before registering.

- 1. Use Chrome as your browser for best experience.*
- 2. Communication about accessing the webinar is done via email.*
- 3. We recommend you participate in the webinar from your computer or laptop. It is possible to access it from your cell phone, but some of the functionality we use may not work.*
- 4. Assistance is provided. But please understand that not every device works the same and there may be times when something is so specific to your situation that we may be unable to solve it for you.*
- 5. We will refund your tuition if the rare occurrence happens, and you are unable to attend due to a technical issue.*

If you have other questions about participating in a webinar, please feel free to call us at 952-885-5446. We look forward to seeing you online soon!
